2. Board ensures the proper and efficient implementation and monitoring of compliance with company internal policies.	COMPLIANT

		As stated in the Employee Handbook of the Company, the Company believes that the highest form of discipline is self-discipline. Discipline is not merely a restraint on one's behavior but a total conditioning of oneself for the highest achievable levels of performance. The Company aims to create an environment wherein excellent performance and exemplary behavior are the preoccupation of all its employees. Each employee is expected to actively live the Company values. Consistent with the values of the Company, the Company believes in discipline as an exercise in reform rather than punishment. Employees who violate policies, rules and regulations will be given the opportunity to be heard and given due process. Corrective actions are designed to provide the employee maximum opportunity to reform and desist from further violation. However, the Company acknowledges rules may need to be enforced with authority. Thus the Company stipulates that employees violating principles, rules and regulations are given disciplinary actions in progressively increasing severity. This excludes grave offenses for which an employee may be discharged immediately following a lawful investigation.

		Discipline is guided by the following principles and policies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rules must be clearly documented and communicated to all affected. • Rules should clearly state the standards of personal behavior and conduct as well as define the acts as forms of behavior prohibited and punishable. • Corresponding penalties for each violation shall also be spelled out and defined. • Investigations and proceedings shall be expeditious, transparent, and consistent with requirements of law.
